

CONGESTION PRICING PUBLIC HEARING

Hosted by Rep. Pat Ryan

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) proposed a massive $15 per day congestion pricing toll that could cost families up to $5,000 per year, yet continues to not provide adequate services to the Hudson Valley.

The MTA continues to refuse to hold any congestion pricing hearings in the Hudson Valley. Join Congressman Ryan as he holds his own hearing to highlight how congestion pricing will impact you. Invited guests include local elected officials, community partners, and the MTA.
